CLIMATE
Although the warm, Mediterranean climate predominates in Spain, in the case of Madrid, as it is inland, the temperatures are usually extremely marked and contrasting depending on the season, tending to be cold in winter (around 6 degrees in winter) and hot in summer (average of 25 degrees in July and August).

MOBILE PHONE COVERAGE
To make calls or to surf the Internet, you will need to bear in mind the mobile phone frequencies used in Spain. Depending on the bands supporting the telephone, we can have faster or slower data connection.

It must also be taken into account that in Spain (like in most countries) the FDD (Frequency Division Duplex) is used whilst in China and some operators in the United States use the TDD (Time Division Duplex).

ELECTRICAL ADAPTORS
Electricity supply in Spain is 220V. Plugs have 2 round pins and an additional ground pin.

A standard travel adaptor plug will enable you to use appliances from abroad. Most hotels will supply you with one.

WATER
In Madrid you will find one of the safest tap waters in Spain. The capital’s excellent drinking water comes directly from Sierra Norte to the points of consumption.

VAT & TIPPING
In all establishments, service is included in the price. This is not the case in hotels and restaurants, where the legend ‘IVA NO INCLUIDO’ (VAT NOT INCLUDED) usually comes next to the price. This means you should add 10%, it is up to you whether you want to tip or not, but if you’re happy with the service, you may want to leave a gratuity.

OPENING HOURS
Shops in Madrid open at 9 or 10am and close between 8–10pm, and most of them don’t close over lunch. Some – especially those far from the city centre – close from 2 to 4 or 5pm.

In Madrid, shops don’t have restricted opening hours, as local regulations governing shopping days and times grant retailers freedom to close or remain open. The shops and businesses in the districts on the tourist map, mostly Puerta del Sol and Gran Vía, will be open even on Sunday and bank holidays.

To have lunch at a restaurant table, it’s advisable to arrive before 3:30pm, or before 11pm for dinner. However, you can still find kitchens open later than this. And if you do not, you can always go tapas, as tapas bars and restaurants have more flexible hours.
INTERNET & PRINTING
Wi-Fi is limited to certain venues.

ASEF aims to follow environmentally sustainable policies as much as possible; printed project materials will therefore be limited. We will send electronic versions of all project documents and you can therefore access them through your laptop, tablet or mobile phone.

OFFICIAL LANGUAGE
The official working language is English.

The respective project organisers will not provide interpretation or translation services.

LUGGAGE & LAPTOPS
Participants are requested to bring their own working equipment for the meeting and working sessions, e.g. laptop/tablet, especially for ASEFJS12.

MEALS & DIETARY REQUIREMENTS
The organisers will cover all meals as indicated in the programmes. The organisers will accommodate participants’ dietary requirements as much as possible. However, please ensure to notify the organisers in advance. If you have specific dietary requirements which you have not yet informed us, kindly notify us.

MEDICAL INSURANCE
If you are currently on medication, please bring an adequate supply since the drugs prescribed to you may not be available locally. For minor medical enquiries, please inform the organisers.

Participants are responsible for their own expenses arising from special medical services. It is compulsory that participants obtain adequate cover for travel, health and accident insurance before departure from their home countries. ASEF will cover the cost of travel insurance for international participants — please see information regarding the reimbursement of the corresponding project.

SMOKING AND ALCOHOL POLICY
Unless provided at official events by our local partners, alcohol consumption is not allowed during the events due to safety and security purposes. Drug abuse will lead to immediate expulsion from the programme.

Smoking is banned in all conference venues, unless in specific smoking rooms or outdoors. If necessary, please ask around for designated areas for smoking in public areas.
HEALTHCARE
The Spanish National Health System comprises a widespread network of hospitals and healthcare centres that spans across the country. Healthcare centres provide primary care, while specialist service is available in hospitals, to which patients must be referred by a doctor. In addition, hospitals and some healthcare centres have an emergency service.

If you are an EU citizen, you and your family are eligible for medical care, so that you don’t have to return to your country of origin for treatment. However, you should get the European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) in your country, or any equivalent document proving that you have medical insurance in a member state, since this will entitle you to prompt medical care wherever you are.

If you do not have this card (or an equivalent document), you will still get immediate medical assistance, though you may be fully charged for it. You may claim a refund from your health insurance company, according to the medical costs applicable in the country where you received treatment.

MEDICINES
Medicines in Spain must be bought at pharmacies, which you will easily spot by their green cross. Regardless of the time and the area where you are, you will always find one on duty, open round the clock. Antibiotics are sold on prescription only.

EMERGENCIES
In case of emergency (ambulance, fire and rescue, police), call 112, a toll-free number that works 24/7 across the EU, Spain included. The 112 call centre immediately identifies the caller’s location. It has interpreting services covering as many as 80 languages.

FOREIGN TOURIST ASSISTANCE SERVICE
The Foreign Tourist Assistance Service (SATE) offers personal assistance to tourists who need to visit a police station for whatever reason.

Assistance is provided by a qualified team at the official tourism agency or by police officers. They help tourists lodge complaints or fill in forms.

Most countries have diplomatic representation in Madrid.

Sustainable Travel

Sustainable Participants
We define a sustainable participant as someone who—while participating in a project—tries to minimise her or his negative impact on the local community, including its people, the economy and the environment. In an optimal scenario, a sustainable participant at a project leaves a positive mark on fellow participants as well as the local community.

4 Reasons to be a Sustainable Participant
▪ It can save you money because of minimising the consumption of unnecessary/unwanted resources and materials.
▪ You support the local economy and local employment. It is beneficial for your health, as sustainable products and services are often healthier and environmentally friendlier.
▪ It reduces your negative environmental impact, including avoiding greenhouse gas emissions, waste generation, etc.

Waste
▪ Needless to say: All disposable plastic and other unnecessary waste is to be avoided.
▪ Make sure to carry your own (cotton) bag/backpack with you and opt for products that are not wrapped/have been transported in disposable plastic.
▪ Do also bring your own re-usable water bottle with you.

Office & Project Material
▪ To minimise the distribution of unused items and consequently the creation of unnecessary waste, ASEF does not provide participants with office supplies (pens, notebooks, USBs, etc.). Please bring your own note taking materials/electronic devices
▪ Before printing multiple copies of all project materials, assess if you would really need them. Most of the time, electronic copies of the project materials are enough.

While at the project
▪ If there is free time after the programme, and you decide to explore the city, whenever possible, opt to do so by foot, bicycle or public transport.
