Overview
The ASEFYLS Navigators Training on “Ethical Leadership” consists of 2 trainings, the engagement in 1 youth summit and 1 spin-off activity phase for a selected group of 22 young Asians and Europeans. This boutique project empowers participants to assess, craft and re-imagine ethical leadership – for themselves, their immediate community and the society at large. The inaugural edition of the ASEFYLS Navigators Training responds to the feedback from ASEF participants, partners and stakeholders: to establish a long-term platform to enable and nourish ethically responsible leaders. The Training is designed to instil a spirit of curiosity, bravery and will-power among young people to develop Ethical Literacy & Ethical Leadership Skills. It incorporates 3 crucial spheres, namely: 1) self-leadership (you), 2) team leadership (we) and 3) societal leadership (all). 11 thematic areas where ethical leadership is in demand are addressed:

1. Culture
2. Economy
3. Education
4. Environment
5. Family
6. Finance
7. Media
8. Politics
9. Religion and Spirituality
10. Science and Technology

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

The 2 ASEFYLS Navigators Training, conducted in 2018 in India and Poland, shape the participants to take over an active and central role during the ASEFYLS3 and the post-Summit phase.

The objective is to move beyond the often conventional understanding and training of “Skills for the Future” that concentrate on areas such as adaptability, creativity, negotiation, problem solving or skills linked to information and communication technologies. The ASEFYLS Navigators Training tackles a less emphasised - yet essential - aspect of being “future-ready”: Ethical Literacy.
The participants will undergo a rigorous preparation phase which focuses on self-reflection, team work challenges and intimate & in-depth thematic dialogues as well as action-focused facilitation and project management workshops.

COSTS:

Accommodation, meals, visa fee (if applicable), insurance costs and a travel subsidy will be provided for the selected ASEFYLS Navigators Training participants.

By joining the ASEFYLS Navigators Training the participants commit to participate in each of the 4 training elements.
