ASEF Unplugged @KOTAK
“Why do our proposals get rejected?”

Saturday 9 March 2019
15:00 - 18:00
KOTAK, Five Arts Centre
Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

The Asia-Europe Foundation (ASEF) and Five Arts Centre invite you to an afternoon of conversation with managers, of grants and initiatives, from the private sector and cultural institutions. The representatives will be speaking about their initiatives and how these can be accessed for Malaysian arts projects. This will be followed by a moderated session to understand what are the key aspects these programmes look out for, how and why proposals get rejected, how to deal with paperwork and reporting, and what the success rates are like.

Speakers:

Florence Lambert
Head of Arts and Creative Industries
The British Council

Miriam Hager
Programme Coordinator
Goethe Institut

Tsuyoshi Kurihara
Deputy Director
The Japan Foundation Kuala Lumpur

Tan E-Jan
CEO, INXO Productions
INXO Arts and Culture Foundation

Tunku Putri Affah Tunku Anor
Head, Projects (Environment, Sports, Arts & Culture)
Yayasan Sime Darby

Phina So
Programme Manager, Knowledge, Networks, Policy
Cambodian Living Arts

Fatima Avila
Project Manager, Culture
Asia-Europe Foundation (ASEF)

Moderated by:

Anupama Sekhar
Director, Culture
Asia-Europe Foundation (ASEF)